FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Talo'fo'fo Elementary School Passes DPHSS Sanitary Inspection

The Guam Department of Education (GDOE) would like to announce that Talo'fo'fo Elementary School (TALES) has passed its sanitary inspection by the Department of Public Health and Social Services (DPHSS). TALES can now return to regular operations and prepare to welcome our students this coming school year.

GDOE commends Talo'fo'fo Elementary School principal Erwin Manibusan and his team for their commitment to preparing their school campus for SY 2023-2024. Principal Manibusan would also like to recognize the following individuals and organizations who assisted TALES in preparing for its inspection and for the school year:

- Kurt Meno - volunteer and proud grandparent
- Kurtis Meno - GDOE - Division of Special Education
- Talo'fo'fo Mayor's Office
- GDOE's Facility & Maintenance Division
- 254th Red Horse Squadron, Guam Air National Guard
- Chiefs Association, Guam Air National Guard
- Guam Cleaning Masters

Principal Manibusan would also like to especially recognize the DYA summer youth interns and his amazing TALES support staff who worked tirelessly to address any challenges.

Biba, Tigers!

For more information, you can email Michelle A.T. Franquez at matfranquez@gdoe.net or info@gdoe.net.

Congratulations

Great job to Talo'fo'fo Elementary on passing its safety inspection. Thank you to all who assisted in preparation at the home of the tigers!
