GDOE OKKODO High School announces its 16th Annual “Bulldog Day”

Tiyan, Guam – The Guam Department of Education (GDOE) is excited to extend an invitation to the community for the 16th Annual "Bulldog Day" at Okkodo High School. This event, set to take place on Saturday, April 13th, from 11:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., promises a day filled with activities, camaraderie, and Bulldog pride. This celebration is a testament to the school's commitment to fostering a strong community spirit and providing an engaging environment for students, families, and local residents alike.

The 16th annual “Bulldog Day” promises to be a vibrant showcase of the school's commitment to excellence. This year's celebration will highlight the academic strides and interscholastic triumphs that have marked the institution's journey. Attendees can expect an exhibition of the school's numerous accolades, a testament to the dedication of both students and faculty. Furthermore, the event will shine a spotlight on the dynamic clubs and organizations that enrich the campus life, reflecting the unwavering Bulldog Spirit and Pride that resonates throughout the school community. It's a day to honor the past, celebrate the present, and look forward to the future of this esteemed educational establishment.

A day of celebration promises an array of activities that cater to all ages and interests. From the immersive experience of a gallery walk-through exhibit to the vibrant atmosphere of live entertainment and a carnival, there's something to captivate everyone. The presence of food trucks offers a taste of local cuisine, while an indoor bazaar provides a unique shopping experience. It's a day designed for family enjoyment, creating memories that will last a lifetime.
