GDOE Announced the FY 2024 Math Olympiad Championship Winners

Tiyan, Guam - The Guam Department of Education's (GDOE) Academic Special Events Program, under the Curriculum and Instruction Life Readiness Project, has successfully concluded the Math Olympiad Competition for the school year 2024. The recent mathematics competition was a thrilling display of young talent, with 13 schools bringing together over 100 participants. This event not only showcased the exceptional skills of students but also served as a testament to the importance of academic excellence.

The commendation from Dr. Erik Swanson, the Superintendent of GDOE, highlights the exceptional achievements of students in mathematics. It's a testament to the hard work and dedication that these young minds have put into their studies. Such recognition not only celebrates their current success but also encourages a continued passion for learning. It's inspiring to see educators acknowledging the efforts of students, which indeed promises a bright future for academic excellence in Guam. This kind of support and acknowledgment is crucial in motivating students to strive for greatness and to push the boundaries of their intellectual capabilities.

Congratulations to all the winners and participants.
