FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

GDOE Summer Teachers Academy

Tiyan, Guam - The Guam Department of Education's (GDOE) Division of Curriculum & Instruction (C&I) is set to host an enriching Summer Teacher Academy at the University of Guam. This event, scheduled from July 23 to August 1, 2024, promises to be a valuable professional development opportunity for educators. The upcoming training session presents a valuable opportunity for educators from various backgrounds, including Pre-K-12 grade teacher leaders, administrators, and project personnel, to collaborate and enhance their expertise.

Participants will have the chance to learn about the latest evidence-based instructional practices directly from professionals in the field. This gathering is not just a learning experience but also a platform for sharing knowledge and fostering a community of among educators dedicated to continuous improvement and excellence in teaching.

Session Topics Include:

- Supporting essential Math Conceptual Development
- Youth Mental Health First Aide
- STEM Design Challenge
- Empowering ESL Learning: Harnessing AI for Differentiated Teaching Strategies
- Building Connections Through Play
- The Magic in the Instruction – Explicit Instruction
- Bridging the Gap: Strategies for Reaching Hard-to-Reach Students
- CHamoru Orthography

Registration will be available onsite for sessions that have not closed. This academy is open to GDOE teachers and PNP/ Charter school teachers as well.
